

Modern Slavery & Human Trafficking Statement

Argus Spectrum International is committed to continuously improving its practices to identify and eliminate any slavery and human trafficking in its business and supply chains, and to act ethically and with integrity in all its business relationships.

Argus Spectrum International purchase components and products globally and requires its suppliers and supply chains to demonstrate their compliance to the Modern Slavery legislation.

We are a responsible organisation and have processes in place to comply to the directives of ROHS, WEEE, Conflict Materials, REACH. We closely monitor our suppliers to ensure their continued compliance to all issues regarding modern slavery.

Argus Spectrum International encourage our employees to report concerns including any issues related to human rights, child and forced labour and modern slavery.

We continue to enhance our procedures to help us identify, prevent and mitigate any risks of modern slavery or human trafficking in relation to new and existing suppliers and in relation to our own operations.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, enclosed within a blue oval. The signature is cursive and appears to read "Sergey Levtchouk".

Sergey Levtchouk
General Director
Argus Spectrum International
March 2020